Key points :

- Swiss SMEs wishing to invest in this continent are isolated.
- The caution of swiss banks, especially in Geneva, forces many companies to turn away from this growing continent.
- This context penalizes SMEs, which are very present in Switzerland

Comments :

- Isabelle Chevalley : "Swiss companies are pulling out of Africa. I would like to see the brakes" (translated from French).
- Pascale Jeannin Perez, Director of the consulting firm ISC : "Switzerland is likely to close a lot of markets by its extreme rigor" (translated from French).
- Stéphane Graber, Secretary General of the STSA : "This context mainly penalizes SMEs in Switzerland and in partner countries, particularly in Africa".
